AROUND THE CLUBS

Maitland forward Bruce Killen showed great courage by staying on the field last Saturday, although in great pain. Well done Bruce.

Norths reserve full back Johnny Hanlon has been busy receiving congratulations since his wife presented him with a son—both well.

Cessnock's star half back Nev Hannah reappears today with the senior side. Nev has been on the side lines in recent weeks through an injured leg.

Fullback Alwyn Taylor is having a splendid season with Central First grade side. Alwyn, playing probably better football now than at any stage of his career, first came up to grade football during 1955.

West five eighth Barry Martin returns to West first grade today. Renewing the partnership with Kevin Hodgson that enabled West to win last year's competition, here's hoping.

Billy Mattingley, North's young forward had a great game last week, scoring a fine try and sound general play. This lad who is still only 18 seems assured of a bright future.

It was good to see the O'Connors, from Waratah back scoring tries last week. Hilton, the winger gets very few chances these days, but when they come he rarely misses. Big brother Ronnie backed up well to score his and made another after a long run into the open. More of this good work, by passing the ball will do much to keep him in first grade.

Winner of Central's canteen of cutlery competition at the Sportsground on the day we met North was Mr. R. Gainer, 87 Tudor St., Hamilton.

Making his debut in 3rd grade football with Cessnock today is young Warren Hemsworth. Warren is a brother to former star half back "Pommer" Hemsworth. A very bright future is predicted for this lad.

Promising Maitland centre Warren Bell in his first game of the season last Sunday capped a good display by scoring three tries.

"Piston Foot" Ashley Screen from North filling in for Ducky Williams in a position quite new to him had a very creditable game. Ashley is a grand club man.

Les Olsen will take a wing spot in West first grade side today which goes to show that a third grader one week can be in seniors the next. Best of luck Les.

Although Waratah scored a fairly easy win last week there was great applause for the grand try scored by hooker Jack "Garraweena" Gordon. Jack averages about one try every five years, but this one was one of his best ever. In fact he showed so much pace it was like Ian Moir at his best.

Eric Parsons, North's third grade rake helped his side to a fine win last week with a very liberal share of the ball and also played well in general play.

Congratulations to Cessnock reserve grade five eighth Athol Peden in being voted the player of the week for the "Advertiser" trophy.

Players from Maitland Club who were selected B. & F. 15/7/62 in reserve and third grade were Les Allen and Fred Russell.

Ron Gibson is nearing the century mark again this season for West and a good match today could see him realize this feat, so score them under the posts fellas and Ron will do the rest.

Winners of comp conducted by Maitland 15/7/62 were 1st D. Hislop, Maitland ticket No. 6148 and 2nd 6144, Stuart Metcalfe, Maitland.

Congratulations to player Jack Lambert on his long service with Central club. Jack will attain his 150th game on his next appearance.

Newcomers to Centrals Committee in George Fletcher and Neil Giles, both good workers, and ardent supporters of the blue and whites.

Waratah has unearthed a top second row forward in Hughie Banks. Recently this player, when the team was weakened with injuries did a fine job in the position. Despite the fact that he is a first class five eighth this is a position he can look forward to when he loses his speed in years to come.

Evergreen Cec Cavanagh returns as fullback against Lakes in Wests seniors, not as brilliant as in former years but nevertheless still as keen as ever.
