Congratulations are extended to C. Gill, J. Hutchison and A. Collinson on their inclusion in the Newcastle sides last week-end.

One at this stage must pass comment on the glaring omission of Charlie Gill from the Country side playing in Sydney, to-day. Charlie last week at Wollongong played perhaps the finest game of his career; he was easily the best forward on the ground, was never off the ball, scored a try, in fact he done everything a forward should do, the opinion was shared by many Sydney club officials. To sum up, it wasn't just a case of bad luck, but definitely that of bad selection.

The lads of the senior side have a busy week-end. To-day we play South and to-morrow we journey to Sydney to play Western Suburbs in our annual match. So, boys, the best of luck and good scoring (especially to-day) in both matches.
