Congratulations Bill Hamilton of Kurri on being selected as a reserve in the match Newcastle v. France.

Thanks to Alan Dodd for his splendid effort towards making last Sunday such a pleasant day out for the rest of his Kurri team mates at Karuah.

In an effort to get more balls from the scrums, Waratah selectors have given Peter Murphy his big chance this week. Peter is a promising hooker who will be keen to do well.

That fine young prospect in Waratah, Geoff Howley is being brought along gradually before he becomes a regular first grade player. He is too good a prospect to be hurried into top class.

Waratah under 7's gained their first point in the schoolboy competition last week. Among these midgets is a coming star in young Paul Banks. Incidentally coach of this side is Hughie, Waratah's skipper, who claims he has the keenest trainers he's ever seen.

Macquarie are full of confidence for their clash with Waratah after their thrilling win against the strong Central side last round.

Max Snowden and Sel Shirley proved able replacements for Macquarie against Central playing a big part in the victory.

Congratulations to Ian McKinnon of Macquarie in winning the "Ford Award" in the game against Central.

Winner of North transistor prize last week was N. Sheather, 13 Hitchcock Ave., New Lambton, ticket No. 18842.

All League supporters are sorry to hear of Cecil Bull's severe ankle injury and sincerely trust he will soon be fit and well again.

Cessnock's officials received a big kick out of Ray Muir's seven goals to clinch the Caltex Final. Kicking has cost Cessnock valuable competition points and the side will be a tougher proposition now it has unearthed Muir's golden boot.

North scrum half Johnny Ryan played a great game against South last week. Although only small he is all heart.

Good to see Earl Craft up and about again. Craft was enjoying a great season in Cessnock's second row before he was injured against Wests. A week's spell in hospital with a head injury spelt finis to Craft's football ambitions — for this season any way.

BERT AGLAND TROPHY

Kevin Hodgson scored his third major award and Brian Carlson, Warren Bell and Alan Thomson their second in the eighth series of matches played for the best and fairest player for the Bert Agland trophy.

Ian McKinnon of Macquarie was the other top points recipient.

Thomson is now undisputed leader with a total of 10 points.
