AROUND THE CLUBS

Barry Laurence turned in a fine display in his senior debut for South. Old hands predict a good future for him.

Wilf Westoe, committeeman and selector for Kurri club, is one of the keenest workers for the club. He has been an active member for the past nine years, as a player and now selector, which is his first year in this position.

Patrons are reminded of the Grand Cabaret, conducted by North's Ladies' Committee, to be held to-night in the Transport Hall, Hamilton. Everybody is invited to what promises to be a mighty show.

Alwyn Taylor, playing his first-ever game as five-eighth for Central Seniors last week, gave a most encouraging display — his devastating tackling from this position being one of the highlights of a disappointing match. His grubber kick, which he has developed to a high degree of accuracy, is a strong feature of his game; and he handles with all the surety of a full-back, which he was.

A former Waratah and Australian player, Ron Roberts, will be a spectator at to-day's game. Ron (Lanky) will be well remembered for his brilliant play as a junior and later senior member of the Waratah club. Ron, who has been in the hotel game, is on holidays in Newcastle with his wife, Pat, and son, Graham.

Keen Cessnock supporters Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wilde were seen at the game at Arncliffe Sports Ground last Saturday, with their young son, whom Harry has high hopes of one day donning the black and gold.

South officials are pleased with form shown by Wagga Cridland, who is improving every game. A product from South under twenty side last year, Wagga will soon be pressing for top ranks.

Kurri officials hope to have the return of front-rower, John Liddell, and star centre, Jack Chapple. Both these players have been on the injured list since early this season, but their injuries are well on the "mend" and both players could be fit within three weeks.

North's supporters are still talking about the grand performance of their forwards in last week's game. The manner in which they took control of the game will be quoted as an example of forward play for many seasons to come. An extra word of praise must be given to Billy Owens for the part he played.

Central's 1st grade fullback, Darryl Lee, must surely be Newcastle's most courageous custodian. Though faced with wave after wave of burly Kurri forwards in the game last week, I can't remember him missing a tackle, and he never once flinched from his task. He is one of Newcastle's brightest prospects in this position and, with more experience, should prove one of the best fullbacks seen in this district.

The "terrible twins," Aub. Rowland and Don Sargent, are playing brilliant football in their initial season with the Waratah first grade team. There are not many players who come direct from an under 20 to first grade, but these boys have done a very good job.

West Lucky Supporters last week were: 1st Prize—Orange ticket 1496 (Overnight Bag), Pop Robinson of Adamstown, 2nd Prize—White ticket 1727 (Travel Rug), Mr. Turnbull of Adamstown, 3rd Prize—White ticket 1516 (Supper Cloth), Miss Cooper of Blacksmiths.

One of the most improved players in Central's three teams this season is
N. Burns, son of 1st grade team manager, Ken Burns. Though only a lad of not very many years, young Burnside continues to improve with every game;
his display against Kurri in the reserves
last week being full of merit.

In the not-so-far-distant future he will not be out of place in any football company.

It is rumoured that West assistant secretary, Jack Atcheson is finding that work is interfering with football activities, so he's decided to give work away for a while and take his Long Service Leave.

Bad luck for Athol Callaghan and Jack White when leg injuries kept them out of the senior team last Saturday.
Supporters and fellow players wish you both a speedy recovery.

Winner of the competition for towels conducted by North's was won by Mr. K. Anderson of 71 Gibson Street,
Cook's Hill. Ticket Blue B100.

Waratah reserve grade have moved into second place on the competition table after their very good win against South's last Saturday. Milton Kelly, the hooker and team captain, is doing a very good job as leader of this young team.
