AROUND THE CLUBS

Congratulations are extended to Billy Owens from North on his selection in the Country side to West Australia. A good game in this could lead to the Kangaroo side.

John Clouton and Max Jones appear with the Reserves today after several successful games with the First grade. Both boys are keen to do well with Jim Scouler's team.

A newcomer to Western Suburbs Club this season is Reserve grade second rower Col Law. Col who commenced in third grade is a solid defender who can always be relied upon to do more than his share of tackling and is proving a real acquisition to the club.

Two bright Kurri prospects are Alan Dodds and Kevin Johnson. Both these lads are having their first season in grade football.

Maitland Lucky Nos. v. South: Linen No. 24847 pink; Open Order £1 27954; Open Order £2 45401. First scores Mait. 5, South 9.

Lakes reserve forward Warren Lynch who has been promoted to the First grade on four occasions gave his best display last week against Kurri. Keeness for his football and training has no doubt been the reason for his continued improvement.

A pleasing feature of North's reserve grade win last week, was the manner in which they opened up the game. Credit for this must go to the halves Johnny Simon and Trevor Cole.

It is hoped that Russ Naughton today will obtain the necessary 8 points to bring up his 100 for the season. The 92 that he has scored came up in 8 games.

Les Burgess showed to an advantage in his return to senior ranks with South. Les should be hard to replace in future.

Les Dann, Secretary of North's School committee is busy organising for a big gala day for schoolboys on Sunday, 2nd August at Wickham Oval.

Congrats to Jim Forrester, coach of South Thirds, Jim's boys are in fine fettle, a big smile was the order of the day last Saturday when his team took the competition lead.

A pat on the back for Doug Wilkins, who has filled several positions in South Thirds this season and each time came through with credit.

Last Saturday the Cessnock reserve grade coach Lew Roach was presented with a pocket for having played 100 club games.

A hard working Kurri committee-man is team manager Ken "Nugget" Haddow. Ken looks after the players needs each Saturday in a very capable manner.

It is good to see Cessnock half back Neil Barrett taking a great interest in the Saturday morning schoolboy competition. Neil has refereed some games. Acts like this go towards making a good Club man.
