AROUND THE CLUBS

Congratulations go to Jim Harden for an outstanding performance in the third grade team last Saturday. There is not much Jim does not know about the lock position, as he was coached as a lock in his junior football days by Bert Halverson.

North's young forward Les. Gill showed further improvement in last week's game and many keen judges rated him the best forward of the day.

Warren Foley had a brilliant match recently against South Newcastle, in his new position as centre three-quarter. His combination with speedster Ray Radley left nothing to be desired. Warren also scored a good try.

Lake's supporters, don't forget our Mixed Social at the Sportsman's Club after the game against Waratah. Spec. Watt and Bill Pow will do the entertaining. Remember Sunday night the 13th.

"Erca" Pond with ninety-nine points up in reserve grade should reach the century to-day. Do not forget to give him the big hand when he scores the one hundredth. Incidentally, "Erca" is very consistent (as with the exception of last season when he did not play) he has scored over the century mark on many occasions.

Ray Everitt, North's winger, resumes in reserve grade to-day after an injury and his performance will be watched with interest in regard to the future as he was developing into a classy winger.

Congratulations were showered on Waratah left winger Ray Radley after his auspicious debut with the first grade team. Ray scored three brilliant tries in his first game, and supporters predict a bright future for this lad.

It is pleasing to know that in the early fixture in the return match between England and Newcastle on August 17th, that the Kurri Kurri under 18 team play Abermain-Weston under 18 team in the final of the knockout competition. Both these teams are playing good football and are well up in the points table in the Maitland Junior League competition. So if supporters want to see a real entertaining match, come along and see these lads in action.

Attention West Lucky Supporters. Last week's prize, the Chenille Bedspread, was won by blue ticket No. 1304 and has still not been claimed—so please examine your tickets.

To-day Sports Ground followers get the opportunity of seeing the two Cessnock midjet teams, "Bandicootes" and "Bloodhounds," ages down to three years, weights as low as three stone seven pounds. Give them a big hand when they take the field.

Reg. Cody, South Coach, is under doctor's orders and is unable to coach at present. All wish Reg. a speedy recovery.

North's reserves are improving with every game and last week proved capable of defeating the strong Kurri side. Two promising lads who played a big part in that success were Rex Wilson as lock and Nev. Lavender, a recent recruit from Australian Rules in the second row. Both scored really good tries.

Ray Beverley, Kurri's star full-back, played another grand game against North last Saturday. Some of the brilliant tackles he made to save certain tries was a feature of the match.

Congratulations to Jim Turner and Jack Smyth of Lakes on gaining first grade honours.

Abermain-Weston Junior Club are having one of their best seasons this year. It certainly is a credit to see the way in which their officials work. The Senior Club certainly appreciate their valuable efforts towards the fostering of Junior League in the district.

Big Chris. Lawler who is doing a grand job in keeping North's players in condition, is quite elated with that team's success. Chris, incidentally has acquired a new title since he joined North's, that being the club's champion "Fish Filcher and Beer Bandit."

Congratulations to West's battling winger, Kev. Cashen, and his wife, Francis, on the birth of a baby daughter, Jenifer. (All doing well.)

Lucky winner of North's competition last week was Mr. T. Jones of 8 Henry Street, Tighe's Hill, No. 400.
