Kiwis play Newcastle next Sunday

The touring New Zealand team visit Newcastle next weekend and will play our representative team at the International Sports Centre on Sunday at 3.00 p.m.

This will be the 18th occasion that the "Kiwis" have played Newcastle. In the previous 17 games Newcastle have only defeated them on four occasions. However, Newcastle have been successful in two out of the last three. In 1978 they won 19-12, in 1967 they again were winners 14-7 and in 1963 went down 24 points to six.

Between 1908 and 1920 New Zealand played Newcastle on six occasions and won the six games.

Newcastle's record against international sides is very good and all touring sides respect the ability of our players by fielding their strongest teams and it will be surprising if the New Zealanders are not at full strength for this match.

The New Zealand touring squad is:—

Backs:

Gary Kemble, Darrell Williams, Mark Bourneville, Marty Crequer, Dane O'Hara, James Leuluai, Mark Elia, Joe Ropati, Tea Ropati, Shane Cooper, Gary Freeman, Glen Donaldson.

Forwards:

Kurt Sorensen, Owen Wright, James Goulding, Brent Todd, Adrian Shelford, Peter Brown, Wayne Wallace, Barry Harvey, Dean Lonergan, Sam Stewart, Rob O'Regan, Captain.

The Newcastle selectors have made many changes to the team that was defeated by Western Division in the Caltex Country Championship Final when they announced the squad last Sunday night to play in the international fixture.

The Newcastle squad is as follows: Mark Brokenshire (Lakes), David Grant (Lakes), Peter Parsons (Lakes), Steve Cherry (South), Les Rotumah (South), Rod Whitaker (Cessnock), Ward Snowden (Macquarie), Glen Murray (West), Phil Williams (Kurri), Jim Fowler (Lakes), Col Mathias (Lakes), Robert Taylor (Lakes), Tony Keavill (South), John Hunter (Cessnock), David Woodberry (Cessnock), Terry Stevenson (Macquarie), Ewan McGrady (Waratah).

Next weekend's match is proudly sponsored by Caltex who have had a record 25 years association with the Country Rugby League of NSW.

INTERESTING STRUGGLE IN THIRD GRADE

The battle for fifth position in third grade competition continues as only four points separate Maitland, Kurri, Central and Cessnock who all have a chance of qualifying for the playoff.

At the top of the table another keen struggle is on for the Minor title with Waratah at present leading on 22 points but only two points clear of South and Lakes who are in equal second position.

Junior Coaches Study for Level 1 Certificate

Under the guidance of coaching director, Dennis Ward, 73 coaches are attending courses to obtain their Level 1 Coaching Certificates.

Western Suburbs and Lakes United junior clubs have been instrumental in having these courses completed by their coaches and should be commended for their efforts.
