NORTH

To-day we make our first appearance in a competition game for quite a while when we meet South. However, all the boys are quite fit, having had a run at Kurri last Sunday, when we played a 21 all draw with the Coalfields. Thanks to the Kurri Club for the entertainment after the game. Everybody quite enjoyed the refreshments and some good songs were heard coming home in the bus. Leading the choir was Lou, (Alki) Sweeney. Nice soprano voice you've got there Lou.

Noticed in the bus going to Kurri was the "Mayor of Maitland," being serenaded by a pretty miss. Nice work if you can get it.

Many happy returns to Doug Hawke who reached his Majority last Wednesday. When's the big challenge with "Jitter" Norman coming off Doug?

In response to many requests for another quiz this week, the big question is, Who is the Phantom Author Bloke?

A welcome return to the club is former Newcastle and Country rep. fullback, Les Gilbert. Les makes his reappearance to-day in the reserves.
