

AROUND THE CLUBS

Stan Gill made a welcome return to form last week with North. It is pleasing to see this big winger again in top grade as he is certainly a crowd pleaser with his hard running.

Leaving bachelor days behind, Jim Forrester, well known with South Club. Jim today weds Anne Davies, best wishes from all.

If keenness counted, Wally Sutherland, Waratah prop forward would be in a class all of his own. Always in great condition, he is the type of player any club is proud of.

Comp. conducted by Maitland last Saturday was won by Mr. Wellings, c/o. Western Suburbs, ticket No. 2005.

Playing his first game today since being injured on 30th April is Maitland five eight "Gus" Ryan.

Neil Hancock is helping to solve North's goal kicking problem. Last week he scored five, one from the side line being extra good.

John Campbell must be given full marks for keenness. John has played in many positions in both South reserve and third grade sides, besides doubling up on at least two occasions.

Mick Platts is continuing to show good form as centre with North reserves. His game last week played a big part in their win.

Des Cullen Kurri's half back proving an able replacement for injured player Joe French. Des has been a very handy utility player having played first grade football as a centre, lock, five eighth and now half back.

Reserve grade coach for Cessnock L. Roach, is convinced that his team will force its way into the semi-finals now that it has struck the form that it is capable of playing.

West diminutive 5/8, Ivan Leggan is doing a good job with the Under 12 schoolboys. Whilst they are yet to win a game, Ivan has them as keen as himself on Rugby League, which after all is what a lot have yet to learn—the game is the thing.

The Kurri Third grade team is equal fourth on the points table with Lakes and today's match between these teams should prove an entertaining game. The Kurri team is playing attractive football and a win today will make it a strong contender for a semi-final position.

Back after a few weeks off, due to injury, Billy Giles Waratah half back, quickly hit top form in the game against North last week. A tireless worker all the time, his try was a fitting reward to his perseverance.
