WINGER Zig Niszczo (now with South Sydney) crossed for four tries when Northern Suburbs scored an untroubled 27-9 win against Macquarie United at Toronto in 1976. It was the first win in four matches that season for the previous year's preliminary finalist. The defeat relegated Macquarie to the bottom of the points list. North showed superior combination to Macquarie, which finished ahead in scrums and penalties. North finished with six tries to Macquarie's one and captain-coach Gary Leo, in an unusual role, landed three goals.
