AROUND THE CLUBS

Remember Lakes supporters that the Hotel Belmont are staging a big night for the club next Friday night the 7th of August. There will be a number of artists headed by that brilliant TV artist Barry Sanford.

Sunday, 16th August will be the day for South's Past and Present players annual fixture, all past players are invited to attend.

North's big front rower Tommy Anderson is playing grand football at the present. His tackling in particular, being most prominent, and what a great try he scored against Lakes.

Kurri's captain and utility player, Jim Beddow reverts back to his usual position of lock for today's match against North. Jim plays his best football in this position and his tight defence will worry the big North pack.

All Lakes supporters will be pleased to learn that the Reserve grade captain, Jack Smyth who suffered a double fracture of the jaw is coming along well. With the bracing that is in his mouth Jack can only take fluids.

All Cessnock players and supporters were busy recently congratulating reserve grade player Jim McKendry when he announced his engagement to local lass Miss Molly Sawyer.

Maitland Club will make 100 game presentations to three players at the next home game. Don Adams, Keith McPherson and Bob Worger. All have been great clubmen and deserve all honours that may be given them.

Don't forget Waratah's Gala Cabaret next Saturday night 1st August, 1959 at St. Mathew's Hall, Georgetown. All welcome.

Waratah Senior, George Mead has been playing excellent football—improving with each game, and should prove to be a very strong force for the 'Tahs in the future.

Maitland Lucky No. v. Cessnock last Saturday, First Scores Maitland 10, Cessnock 10; Open Order £1, No. 17124; Open Order £2 No. 59915.

It was pleasing to see Kurri Reserve grade forward Kerry Maybury turn in an outstanding game last Saturday. Nice going, Kerry!

Young Central forward Jack Ryan continues to improve with each game, and another two or three years of experience will put him amongst the best in Newcastle.

North's popular Asst. Secretary, Lou Sweeney and wife Elaine have been busy receiving congratulations on the advent of a baby daughter. All doing well, especially the proud father.

It is understood that Cessnock 3rd grade team manager Arthur "Wiffy" Smith is seriously considering going into the hotel business with his father around about the Griffiths area. With the experience gained by "Wiffy" at Werris Creek, the hotel game should come very easy to him.

Max Tisdell's display in the half back position has been fine, his good delivery and sound defence has been an asset to his side.

Though Central Reserves aren't often a team of winners, they certainly must be given credit for being triers — as they are always trying right to the final bell. They have turned on some good crowd-pleasing football.
