Firstly, congratulations to Cessnock on their win over us last Saturday. We weren't disgraced, going down 0-5 in a sea of mud.

It is with regret we note the passing of the President of the Newcastle Rugby League, Mr. E. Lloyd and Northern Suburbs take this opportunity of expressing their deepest sympathy and regret to Mrs. Lloyd in her sad loss.

The Club has re-formed the Old Players' and Supporters' Club of a Sunday morning and anyone wanting further information can get it by contacting the Sec., Jerry Hawke.

The Quiz. Question this week is: "Who is 'Lover Boy'?"

A welcome back is extended to Ray Picton who plays his first game of the season in the Reserves, to-day. Ray played in the Grand Final team which won in 1948. A handy forward, he will be a welcome addition to the Club.

To-day we play Kurri and will be flat out to win this one and so make sure of our position in the semi's. Best of luck to both teams, we know this will be a hard one.

—R.E.H.
