AROUND THE CLUBS

Stan Farquharson who is having his first year as treasurer with North is doing a really good job for the "blues". Stan has a long family association with North. His father Eric being a former secretary, and uncle Allan being a former player and committeeman.

Comp. conducted by Maitland 2/7/60 was won by Mrs. E. Hoffman, Beresfield ticket No. 4079.

Despite the lack of size, Waratah hooker M. "Zonka" Kelly continues to shine when the going gets tough. Nearly always able to get his share of the ball from the scrums, Zonka could well be called "The Little Dictator."

Alec Perkins, South 5/8 played an excellent game last week. He reproduced the form that made him one of the district's top liners.

"Bud" Ridley, Kurri's young third grade winger was very unfortunate when he sustained a fractured jaw a fortnight ago. It was an accidental injury and it is bad luck for this young player in his first season in grade football.

Darrell Anderson of North is continuing to improve and he fully deserved all the praise he earned for last week's game. Darrell should represent next year.

It was pleasing to see Russ Faulds return to the Cessnock third grade team against Toronto. Russ has found it hard to train this season and now he has made the side he could be selected for reserve grade before the season is over.

Johnnie Parkinson from North's thirds is playing good consistent football. His switch of play last week which brought a fine try being excellent.

Always there to see Waratah turned out spic and span, is popular jersey steward "Big Jim" Baldock. Besides being a top man in his job Jim would be the best chewing gum eater in the land.

Greg Murrell showed a fine turn of speed when he scored a runaway try which virtually won the match in the third grade game against Lakes last Saturday. Kurri and Lakes were equal on fourth place but after Kurri's 8-4 victory last week this team is now leading by 2 points over Lakes for the fourth position.

All in Wests camp are wishing Graham Sutcliffe a speedy recovery from his broken wrist, received against Waratah last week. Although on the bright side, Ern Snelson, Terry Knight and 'Big Joe' Corder resume in the teams today and all wish them a top form game.
