1959 Season Concludes . . .

This afternoon brings to a close the 1959 Rugby League season. The season has proved to be a most interesting one from a football viewpoint and among the juniors great progress has been made.

The Newcastle Rugby League desires to record its appreciation of the efforts of all players and officials and above all to you, the Rugby League public, without whose support the code could not continue to progress.

And so we move to the 1960 season with its unknown possibilities, the highlight of which will be the visit of the mercurial Frenchmen.
