Once again congratulations were the order of the day last Saturday, when we won a treble at the expense of West. Supporters should be well pleased with the form shown by all teams. The Seniors by their run-away win have got the good judges guessing as to just how good they really are.

The goal-kicking effort of Allan Welsh, who kicked 12 out of 13, was a record for the Sports Ground. "Seagull's" general play was also of the highest order.

Barry "Coca" Redding gave a polished display in the centre and looks like being in all the rep. teams this year again.

Tom Anderson is another player who played an outstanding game, scoring 4 tries.

In the Reserves, newcomer Alec Perkins played soundly in the centre. This lad comes from Stockton Under 20's and big things are expected from
