NORTH

Firstly, congratulations to the Senior team on their effort in defeating the previously unbeaten Bessnock team so convincingly last Saturday. It would be unfair to pick any one player out for special mention as they all played well.

One player, however, who will improve still further, is "Buddy" Bowman, former Rugby Union player. Having his first run with the club last week he showed enough to indicate that with a couple more games under his belt he will be one of the best centres in Newcastle.

The Old Players v. Present players game has been set down for Sunday, 14th June, at Wickham Oval and everything points to it being a bumper day, so keep this date vacant. Several old players have started training
